Remarks

Please check the accuracy of the data you have entered, especially bank or postal details. Please report any corrections to COOPI Suisse at +41 (0)91 966 34 72 or by e-mail to suisse@coopi.org.

Minors require the permission of their parents. In accordance with the Swiss Data Protection Act, your data will be treated confidentially and will not be disclosed to third parties.

Why is it important to choose bank or postal direct debit as a method of payment? I say yes once and only once and help all year round. Each debit can be withdrawn within 30 days and the fee re-credited. There are no administrative costs borne by COOPI Suisse (which would be the case with a payment slip). If you wish to cancel your membership, please notify COOPI Suisse by post (COOPI Suisse, Via Curti 19A, 6900 Lugano) or e-mail (suisse@coopi.org).

Information

In accordance with the Federal Act of Data Protection (FADP of 19 June 1992, in force since 1/7/1993, hereinafter referred to as "FADP"), we inform you that your personal data will be processed for the purpose of managing regular donations and for domiciliation. The supply of personal information and its processing is necessary to respect the person's desire in making a donation. Subject to your voluntary consent, your personal data may also be processed for social and promotional activities relating to the activities of COOPI Suisse and to profile you in relation to the actions you undertake on behalf of COOPI Suisse, your habits and socio-demographic characteristics. We would also like to inform you that you may exercise your rights under the FADP by calling (0)91 9663472 or by writing to suisse@coopi.org. For further information, please refer to the complete privacy policy published on the website suisse.coopi.org

The undersigned hereby gives

- consent to the processing of my personal data for promotional activities
- consent to the processing of my personal data to be profiled
